

Angela Williams

From: AFSCME <afscmepa@afscme.org>
Sent: Wednesday, December 14, 2022 12:01 PM
To: Angela Williams
Subject: Angela, you've been selected for a new college benefit program

Angela,

We have been working to navigate recent changes in our education benefit program to provide new options for AFSCME members and their families.

Because you recently expressed interest in the AFSCME College Benefit, we are offering you the opportunity to participate in the Spring 2023 term at William Woods University (WWU) — our newest academic partner.

Two Easy Steps to Receive Your Personalized Tuition Estimate

START NOW »

Ranked among the nation's top online learning institutions, WWU is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and offers Associate of Arts degrees — in Liberal Arts or Leadership — available in convenient 8-week courses. This benefit is available to active AFSCME members, retirees and their eligible family members. Your WWU program will either be no cost to you or you will receive an exclusive, deeply discounted tuition rate.

Find Out Just How Affordable College Can Be — It May Even Be No Cost to You!

Fill out the form and update your FAFSA to receive your personalized tuition estimate, the first step in determining if WWU is the right school for you. There are no commitments, and you are not required to apply or attend William Woods University. However, space is limited, and time is short, so don't delay!

START NOW »

We're walking this walk, with you.

You'll have a dedicated Student Success Coordinator to walk you through these next, easy steps on the path to your education future. We're here to help.

Additional questions? Call 888-897-9671 or email williamwoods@student-resource.org.

Connect with AFSCME: